EPIPHANY 3

At any time in the service when we invite you to stand you are welcome to remain seated if you need to.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

Praise the one who breaks the darkness with a liberating light.

Praise the one who frees the prisoners, turning blindness into sight.

Praise the one who preached the Gospel, healing every dread disease, calming storms and feeding thousands with the very bread of peace.

Praise the one who blessed the children with a strong yet gentle word.

Praise the one who drove out demons with a piercing two-edged sword.

Praise the one who brings cool water to the desert's burning sand.

From this well comes living water, quenching thirst in every land.

Praise the one true love incarnate:
Christ who suffered in our place.

Jesus died and rose for many that we may know God by grace.

Let us sing for joy and gladness, seeing what our God has done.

Praise the one redeeming glory, praise the One who makes us one.

Words: Rusty Edwards

Tune: Hyfrydol, melody by Rowland Huw Prichard (1811-1887). TIS 217(i)

WELCOME

Come people of God,
turn your hearts and minds to the light of Christ
even as we turn to the warmth of our summer sun.
Let us be ready to welcome the events and the people who may become turning points in our lives.

We welcome with eyes and hearts open,
ready to see God present in our summer world;
in the people we meet and in the things we do.

Liturgist:

This is what God asks of you:
to act justly, to love tenderly,
and to walk humbly upon our earth.

God of grace,
in whom we live and move and dance for joy,
guide our steps through the complexities of life;
widen our vision that our sight be not limited by what we see, nor our wisdom by what we know, nor our love by what we can accept. Amen.

THE GLORIA

Glorious are you, Mystery of Life, essence of all creation.

You are the symphony of stars and planets.

You are the music of the atoms within us.

You are the dawn on mountain peaks,
the moonlight on evening seas.

Forest and farm, the rush of the city,
everything is embraced in your love.

Glorious are you, O Jesus Christ,
Cosmic love in human flesh.

You graced the smallness of time and place to teach us to dance to the music.

You walk on our seas and heal in our streets.

You make your home in our lives, revealing that cross and resurrection are one on the road to freedom.

Glorious are you, O Spirit of Truth, wisdom and breath of our being.

You are the wind that sweeps our senses.

You are the fire that burns in our hearts.

You are the needle of the inner compass, always pointing to true North,

guiding us on the sacred dance into the Mystery of Life.¹

Please be seated.

RECONCILIATION

In this time of quiet
we invite you to reflect on life this holiday season.
Bring into the presence of God, in this place,
the joys and burdens you carry with you this morning.
If you need forgiveness, seek it in the renewing love of God.

If you need healing, or courage, or wisdom,
seek it in the peace of God.

Jesus says,

“Ask, and it will be given to you;
search, and you will find;
knock, and the door will be opened for you”

Luke 11:9

Silence.

Gracious God,
give us the wisdom to hold to what we need,
grace to let go of those things that we can do without,
and a vision of your breadth, height, and depth that will challenge our smallness of heart, and bring us humbly together.

Priest:

Spirit of God hold us,
Spirit of God move us, Spirit of God burn within us,
so that we may light up the world with your love.

SENTENCE AND PRAYER FOR THE DAY

Let the words of our mouths and the meditation of our hearts be acceptable to you O God, our rock and our redeemer.

Psalm 19:14

Life-giving God, who sent Jesus to proclaim the good news;
anoint us with your Spirit,
that we too may bring good news to the poor,
bind up the broken-hearted,
and proclaim liberty to the captive; Amen.

THE FIRST READING

A reading from the Book of Nehemiah.

Nehemiah 8:1-3, 5-6, 8-10

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

Thanks be to God.

THE GOSPEL

Hear the Gospel of Christ according to Luke, chapter four, beginning at verse fourteen.

Shine on our pathways.

Luke 4:14-21

This is the Gospel of Christ.

May we hear wisdom.

THE SERMON

REFLECTIVE MUSIC

Please stand.

THE AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

You, O God, are supreme and holy.
You create our world and give us life.
Your purpose overarches everything we do.
You have always been with us. You are God.
You, O God, are infinitely generous,
good beyond all measure.
You came to us before we came to you.
You have revealed and proved your love for us in Jesus Christ, who lived and died and rose again.
You are with us now. You are God.
You, O God, are Holy Spirit.
You empower us to be your gospel in the world.
You reconcile and heal; you overcome death.
You are our God. We worship you.²

Please be seated.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Let us be still and mindful of the world, the Church, this nation, our communities, and ourselves.

THE PEACE

Please stand for the Greeting of Peace.

Blessed be Christ the Prince of Peace who breaks down the walls that divide.

The peace of God be always with you and also with you.

Please turn and greet those around you with peace.

² NZ Prayer Book, p. 481

OFFERTORY HYMN *

Take my gifts and let me love you,
God who first of all loved me,
gave me light and food and shelter,
gave me life and set me free.
Now, because your love has touched me,
I have love to give away;
now the bread of love is rising,
loaves of love to multiply!

Take the fruit that I have gathered from the tree your Spirit sowed, harvest of your own compassion,
juice that makes the wine of God;
spiced with humour, laced with laughter –
flavour of the Jesus life, tang of risk and new adventure,
taste and zest beyond belief.

Take whatever I can offer – gifts that I have yet to find,
skills that I am slow to sharpen,
talents of the hand and mind,
things made beautiful for others in the place where I must be:
take my gifts and let me love you,
God who first of all loved me.

*Words: Shirley Erena Murray (1931-2020)
Tune: Talavera Terrace, Colin Gibson. AA 127*

THE PREPARATION OF THE GIFTS

God, accept your people's gifts, not gold, frankincense or myrrh, but hearts and voices raised in praise of you, our light and our hope.

Amen.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

The Spirit is here.

God's hope is in us.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to God.

Let us give thanks to the God of peace.

It is right to offer thanks and praise.

All honour and praise be yours always and everywhere, creator, ever-living God, through Jesus Christ your only Son: for at this time we celebrate your revelation in our midst. In the coming of the Magi Jesus was revealed to the nations.

In the waters of baptism he was revealed as your Son, sent among us.

In the water made wine the new creation was revealed at the wedding feast. Poverty was turned to riches, sorrow into joy.

Therefore with all the angels of heaven we lift our voices in joyful words of praise:

Holy God, holy and merciful, holy and just, glory and goodness come from you.

Glory to you most high and gracious God.

On that night before he died
Jesus took bread and gave you thanks.
He broke it, gave it to his disciples, and said:

Take, eat, this is my body which is given for you;
do this to remember me.

After supper, he took the cup, and gave you thanks.
He gave it to them and said:

Drink this. It is my blood of the new covenant, shed for you, shed for all,
to forgive sin; do this to remember me.

As this bread was scattered and then gathered and made one;
so may we be gathered into your kingdom.

Glory to you, O God, for ever.

Wisdom has built her a house;
she has mixed her wine; she has set her table.

Glory to you, O God, for ever.

Send your Holy Spirit, that we who receive Christ's body
may indeed be the body of Christ, and we who share his cup draw strength from the one true vine.

Praise, glory and love be yours,
this and every day, from us and all people,
here and everywhere. Amen.

Please be seated.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Kua akona nei tātou e to tātou Ariki, ka ĭnoi tātou:

E tō mātou Matua i te rangi, kia tapu tōu Ingoa.

Kia tae mai tōu rangatiratanga.

Kia meatia tōu e pai ai ki runga ki te whenua, kia rite anō ki tō te rangi.

Hōmai ki a mātou āianeī

he taro mā mātou mō tēnei rā.

Murua ō mātou hara,

me mātou hoki e muru nei,

i ō te hunga e hara ana ki a mātou.

Aua hoki mātou e kawea kia whakawaia;

engari whakaorangia mātou i te kino:

Nōu hoki te rangatiratanga, te kaha, me te korōria,

Āke, ake, ake. Āmine.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

We break the bread of life,
and that life is the light of the world.

God here among us, light in the midst of us, bring us to light and life. ³

We sing three times Taizé:

The image shows three staves of musical notation in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The melody is simple and repetitive, with lyrics written below each staff. The first staff ends with a double bar line and repeat dots. The second and third staves continue the melody and lyrics.

A - do - ra - mus te Chris - te, be - ne - di - ci - mus ti - bi,

³ The prayers are taken from the Church of England resources and A NZ Prayer Book

TE POWHIRI THE INVITATION

Haere mai e te kahui a te Atua,
Tangohia enei kai rangatira a te Karaiti.

Come, bringing your varied faiths and backgrounds,
for all are welcome to share in this act of communion.

*All are welcome to come and receive the bread and wine;
there are gluten free wafers, just ask the serving priest.*

There is a chalice for dipping – simply hold the bread in front of you to signify your choice.

If you do not wish to take communion you may come forward for a blessing.

If the stairs are a barrier please sit in the front pews and communion will be brought to you.

Te Taro o te Ora. The Bread of Life

Te Kapu o te Ora. The Cup of Salvation

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Priest:

God of abundant love and unexpected gifts.
We delight in your presence amongst us.

We are glad we can gather around your table as friends sharing the bread of life and wine of blessing.

In this holiday season

we will look for you in the smile of strangers, we will honour you in the life of those we love,

we will be people of God and the Body of Christ

wherever we are. Amen.

THE BLESSING

NOTICES

RECESSIONAL HYMN

Forth in your name, O God, I go, my daily labour to pursue,
you, God, alone resolved to know,
in all I think, or speak, or do.

Each task your wisdom has assigned still let me cheerfully fulfil,
in all my works your presence find,
and prove your good and perfect will.

You may I set at my right hand, whose eyes my inmost substance view,
and labour on at your command,
and offer all my works to you.

Give me to bear your easy yoke,
and every moment watch and pray,
and still to things eternal look,
and hasten to your glorious day;

for you delightfully employ all that your bounteous grace has given,
and run my course with even joy,
and closely walk with you to heaven.

Words: Charles Wesley (1707-1788)

Tune: Song 34, arr. from melody and bass of Orlando Gibbons (1583-1625). TiS 571

Deacon from the rear of the church:

Go now to live the Gospel. Go in peace.

Amen. We go in the power of Love.
